A degree makes a difference to employers

Statistics clearly demonstrate that employers want to hire college graduates, and are willing to pay them for it. In fact, in Texas, those with an associate degree earn, on average, $10,400 more per year than those with just a high school diploma.

We train students for futures in the fastest-growing careers:

- Healthcare
- Information Technology
- Business
- Paralegal Studies

Virginia College at Austin makes a difference to you

But what's more, we do it with all the personal attention you need for success. We help you:

- Select the career that's right for you
- Learn about financial aid options available for qualified students
- Schedule your classes to fit your schedule
- Provide tutoring and academic counseling throughout your coursework
- Assist you in finding a job after you graduate

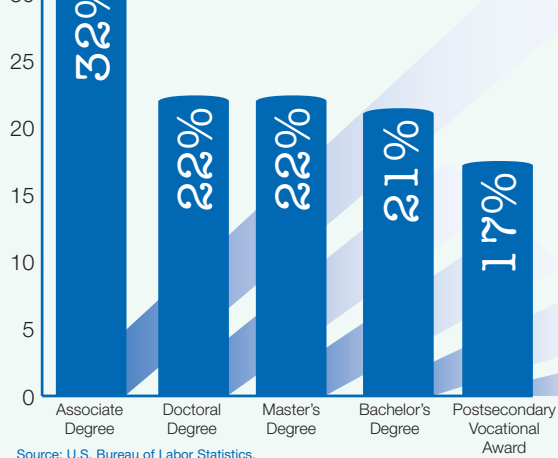

You can get the training you need, obtain your degree or certificate, and be working in a job you love in just one to two years. Did you know that the demand for graduates with an associate degree is growing faster than that of any other type of degree?
